

ModDog Bakery Announces Line of Gourmet Treats for Dogs

ModDog Bakery - Houston announces gourmet dog treat line. The 'Yapper-tizers' dog treats will carry the ModDog brand name.

Houston, TX January 19, 2007 - ModDog Bakery announces their own line of gourmet treats for dogs. Yapper-tizers - a human grade, hand-packaged dog treat will carry the ModDog Bakery brand. The company is expanding its offerings in the dog treat market.

"As a long time pet lover and current caretaker of three dogs, we know how difficult it is to find treats they truly love," says ModDog's owner, Jenny Kitchens. "Our new 'Yapper-tizer' product is unique in this market. We have found that once our dogs had a taste of these delicious treats, they continued to crave them."

Yapper-tizers come in an attractive, white window box so that the customer is able to see the product.

"We searched the market for only the best suppliers," says Jenny. "We know that discriminating pet lovers only seek the finest and most healthy ingredients."
